LIASSE SILL IN LO

Sanitized Approved For Release : CIA-RDP78-01416R000200080023F9/RGHT aid to Lag in

CPYRGHT

By Ernest B. Vaccaro Associated Press

A survey made public last. night by a special Senate Con mittee says Egypt might nov be "a model for the Middle East" had that country been offered "meaningful" United States economic aid.

The survey, by the Cente for International Studies a the Massachusetts Institute o Technology, was commissioned by a special Senate group se up to review the foreign aid program. Submitted by Max F. Milli kan, director of the Center, the report declares than an effec tive program of foreign eco nomic aid is vital to the search for peace.

However, another Commit tee-financed report, made public simultaneously, argues that "private investment, not Government aid, is the most effective way of helping other peoples to improve their levels of living." This report was by the American Enterprise Association, Inc. The Millikan study, in advocating Government assistance to underdeveloped nations, as-"If, at the time of the Naguib revolt, or even during the early days of Nasser, America had made a serious offer to help Egypt tackle her internal economic problems on a meaningful scale, then it is at least conceivable that Egypt would have appeared a dead end the purpose of stimulating private foreign investment."

Naguib's Coup in 1952

young Egyptian army officers would choose the other path headed by Gen. Mohammed the path of pan-Arab adven Naguib forced the abdication turism." of Egypt's King Farouk. The This report was submitted to announced purpose of the coup a special group composed of was to clean out corruption the full Senate Foreign Rela in the government. Col. Gamal tions Committee and represen Abdul Nasser, a leader of the tatives of the Appropriations revolt, took over leadership of and Armed Services Commit the government from Naguib tees. in 1954 and later was named American national interests. president.

The Millikan report says: "The commitment of the the maintenance of a stable young officers of the anti-balance of military power. Farouk revolution was to in-dependence, dignity and re-would have required a concert-bolsters military strength and ed attack on their age-old inter-the will to resist Communist and stagnation.

"But this was a tortuous path bloc," it added. at best, and without substantial "But above and beyond this and sustained outside help in task of deterrence, the nation-

Associated Press

A Smile for Ike

Pauline Kinsey, 17, of Eng land, had planned to marry U. S. Airman James Coles of Boston. Then Coles was arrested for being AWOL and sentenced to six months. Pauline wrote President Eisenhower and now the wedding is planned for March 15.

by now be a model for the Since a serious American con-private foreign investment." mitment was not forthcomin it became virtually inevitable In July, 1952, a group of that Nasser and his colleague

the report said, require a policy which has as its first objective spect for their country. "Economic aid can contribute "One path to these ends to this task insofar as it "Economic aid can contribute national problems of poverty aggression, particularly in the nations bordering on the Soviet the form of capital and tech-al interests require a positive nical assistance it could well-policy toward the new underdeveloped and basically uncommitted nations outside the Soviet bloc . . . "

The American Enterprise Association report said the best way to attain economic-based security objectives, and minimize the American tax burden, is to "place major reliance on expanded private foreign investment."

This report, submitted by William J. Baroody, executive vice president, said at one point:

"We must not allow our emotional bent toward doing good get the better of our judgment of the technical dimension of the development program.

"In particular, policymakers must bear in mind the contributions now being made by American capital invested abroad as well as the prospects for even greater contribu-

Citing obstacles to increase private foreign investment, it said:

"Hopes of receiving largescale grant aid tend to induce foreign governments to be less receptive to private capi-tal, which does not and can not work on the gift principle."

It suggested Congress consider proposals for "reducing taxes on both foreign business

Late Feb - early March